Property Description

Excellent opportunity to acquire a lot for sale in San Isidro de Grecia, Alajuela, located in a peaceful residential area with a fresh climate and surrounded by nature. This property offers an ideal setting to build a family home, a vacation residence, or make a long-term real estate investment in one of the most pleasant areas of Grecia. The lot has a total area of 1,633 m², providing ample space to develop a home with gardens, terraces, green areas, or recreational spaces. Thanks to its location and topography, the property allows you to enjoy beautiful views of the mountains, natural landscape, and the Central Valley, creating an open, private, and spacious atmosphere. The property has all public utilities available, a registered cadastral survey plan, and municipal taxes up to date, providing greater security for buyers looking for land that is ready to move forward with the purchase and construction planning process.
