Property Description

Imagine living or investing in a private paradise on 13,679 m² of land, strategically located just 15 minutes from Juan Santamaría International Airport. This impressive property offers a turnkey experience, being sold fully furnished and ready to move in. The main residence, with 220 m² of modern, open-concept construction, features 3 spacious bedrooms, 2.5 bathrooms, covered parking, and a majestic terrace designed to take in panoramic mountain views, guaranteeing the privileged climate and relaxation you deserve. The estate's intelligent design is highlighted by its two completely independent entrances, preserving the absolute privacy of the house from the service area and its impeccable equestrian facilities, which include more than eight stables and a training arena. Additionally, the infrastructure is designed for maximum performance and value. It features its own registered and legally registered well, an irrigation system throughout the property, paved and stone internal roads, and a functional social area for your gatherings.
