Property Description

Sale Price: CRC 95,000,000 (Approx. US$209,000). Beautiful 4,500 m² (48,438 sq. ft.) lot for sale in San Blas de El Carmen, Cartago, located in a high-value area that perfectly combines the tranquility of the countryside with convenient access to downtown Cartago and all essential services. The property features a gently rolling topography with mild to moderate slopes, offering breathtaking panoramic views of the surrounding mountains and landscape. The land preserves its natural beauty with expansive green areas, scattered trees, and natural rock formations that add character and charm, making it an excellent choice for building a custom-designed home, a private country estate, or a development that takes advantage of the property's unique terrain. With direct access from a public road, the lot provides easy accessibility while maintaining a peaceful, private, and refreshing environment.
