Property Description

A unique and timeless oceanfront masterpiece in the gated, car-free beachfront community of Las Catalinas, designed by Manhattan architect Jorge Letelier of Letelier & Rock Design. This authentic 18th-Century Spanish Colonial revival residence is sold fully furnished, complete with museum-quality antiques and fine art. Unfolding over three levels, the home offers direct beachfront access to white-sand Playa Danta with sweeping, panoramic ocean and sunset views from nearly every room. The gourmet chef's kitchen features a Wolf 60-inch range with island hood, SubZero refrigeration, Bosch dishwashers, ice makers, and a built-in wine storage and beverage center; an outdoor kitchen includes a Wolf 54-inch outdoor grill. Finishes include imported ceramic tile from Portugal and Italy, Coralina stone from the Dominican Republic, repurposed 18th-Century flooring salvaged from a Guatemalan church, high ceilings, and a red Spanish clay tile roof.
