Property Description

Just on the market, this is a large lot in the rapidly growing town of Villareal! Representing a solid development opportunity, it's also the easy choice, as everything has already been taken care of: The lot has been cleared; water and electricity are permitted; and design schematics have been drawn up for apartments (optional build). As one of the top destinations in Costa Rica for both domestic and international tourism, this opportunity won't last long! What You'll Love: - Ready to Build: The lot is cleared, permits are in place, and you'll even receive design schematics for apartments to build. - Hot Investment Opportunity: The region's skyrocketing housing demand represents excellent investment potential, if you choose to build the included proposed apartments. - Prime Location: Villareal is a main artery between Playa Tamarindo and other popular beach towns, north and south. The large lot is 1343 m2 (1/3 acre) with 21 meters (nearly 70 feet) of main road frontage in Calle Los Jobos.
