Property Description

Welcome to Villa Tenorio, a private mountain estate set in the lush highlands of Nueva Guatemala, Canas-where cooler temperatures, expansive land, and breathtaking views of Volcan Tenorio redefine the Costa Rica lifestyle. Positioned on over 23,000 m2 of land, this property offers a rare combination of privacy, scale, and natural beauty, with panoramic views stretching across the valley toward the Pacific lowlands and unforgettable sunset exposure. Unlike speculative builds, this 3-bedroom, 2-bathroom home was thoughtfully designed and constructed by its owners to prioritize livability, airflow, and connection to nature. High ceilings with exposed cedar beams, large windows, and covered terraces create a seamless indoor-outdoor experience, allowing every space to embrace the surrounding landscape. Built in 2011 with durability and comfort in mind, the home features quality materials and smart design elements including a dual-sided fireplace, solid wood finishes, and natural ventilation that eliminates the need for air conditioning.
