Property Description

Villa Palmera is a 3-bedroom, 3-bathroom ocean-view home located in the hills above Playa Potrero on Costa Rica's Gold Coast. Set on a 5,612 m² lot, the property combines privacy, open views of Potrero Bay and the Pacific Ocean, and convenient access to some of Guanacaste's most popular beaches. Completed in 2020, the property consists of a 2-bedroom, 2-bath main residence and a separate 1-bedroom, 1-bath apartment, making it well suited for visiting family, long-term guests, or additional rental income. The main home is centered around an open living, dining, and kitchen area that connects directly to the outdoor terrace through large sliding glass doors. High ceilings and expansive windows bring in natural light while keeping the ocean view in sight from the main living spaces. Outside, an infinity-edge pool overlooks the surrounding tropical forest and Potrero Bay, while the spacious deck provides room for outdoor dining, entertaining, or simply enjoying the sunsets that this part of Guanacaste is known for.
