Property Description

Villa Dahlmar is a luxurious tranquil sanctuary in Southern Costa Rica, nestled in a tropical rainforest. The name of this luxury villa refers to "where the rainforest meets the sea". That name fits because you'll enjoy views of the rainforest out to the Pacific Ocean. Located on five acres, this 3,000 square foot villa offers amenities such as lush rainforest, a moon-shaped infinity pool, and a gourmet kitchen with seating for eight. Villa Dahlmar exudes a warm and spacious design, which is evident with the 12 to 18-foot ceilings in the entryway. Every room is decorated in colorful artwork, such as vivid Toucan birds or colorful butterflies. Pops of color add to the shades of cream and browns throughout the house. Villa Dahlmar features three bedrooms with three ensuite bathrooms. All of the bedrooms feature large windows and ceiling fans to ideally circulate airflow. The master suite is on the left side of the house as you walk in.
