Property Description

Hidden behind a private gate and lush tropical landscaping, Sea Glass Hut is a thoughtfully designed coastal retreat that combines contemporary architecture with the relaxed lifestyle of Costa Rica's Southern Zone. Ideally located in the heart of Uvita, this three-bedroom, one-bathroom residence offers privacy, comfort, and exceptional convenience just a short walk from one of the country's most celebrated beaches. Designed to accommodate up to five guests, the home features clean architectural lines, open living spaces, and seamless indoor-outdoor living. A private backyard invites quiet afternoons by the lap pool, while the sun deck provides the perfect setting to relax after a morning at the beach. Secure gated parking for two vehicles completes this low-maintenance property. From your front door, a five-minute walk leads to Marino Ballena National Park, renowned for its pristine beaches and the iconic Whale's Tail sandbar, one of Costa Rica's most recognizable natural landmarks.
