Property Description

This expansive 8,500 m² property is ideally situated near major commercial destinations, including Maxi Palí, BM Supermarket, and El Colono, providing excellent exposure and easy access in one of the area's most active commercial corridors. Its strategic location and development potential make it a compelling Costa Rica luxury investment opportunity. The property offers generous space and outstanding potential for a wide range of commercial and mixed-use developments. Its strategic location, accessibility, and proximity to established businesses make it an excellent opportunity for investors and developers seeking to capitalize on the continued growth surrounding Manuel Antonio beachfront homes and the broader regional real estate market. With ample land and strong commercial visibility, this property is ideally suited for a major commercial project, retail center, supermarket, offices, services, or other high-demand developments.
