Property Description

Nestled between Pavones and Playa Zancudo, Casa Vista Verde is a newly built tropical retreat offering privacy, modern comfort, and exceptional investment potential. Set on a secure lot surrounded by lush rainforest, this beautifully crafted pressure-treated wood home combines natural beauty with contemporary design. The home features a spacious open-concept living and dining area, a fully equipped kitchen with island, one large bedroom with a king-size bed and en-suite bathroom, plus a guest half bathroom. Large sliding glass doors connect the interior to an expansive covered terrace overlooking the saltwater pool, jacuzzi, and tropical gardens. Designed for both personal enjoyment and income generation, the property includes ample space to build one or two additional cabins, creating an excellent opportunity for vacation rentals or a boutique hospitality project. Property Features: Newly built pressure-treated wood construction 1 bedroom | 1.
