Property Description

Discover an exceptional investment opportunity in Nativa Resort, one of Costa Rica's premier gated residential communities on the stunning Central Pacific Coast. Priced at US$125,000, with a condominium fee of $383, with all building permits, this premium homesite offers the perfect setting to build a luxury residence, vacation retreat, or long-term investment property in one of the country's fastest-growing real estate markets. Ideally located in Tárcoles, Garabito, Puntarenas, the property combines privacy, lush tropical surroundings, and convenient access to world-renowned destinations including Jacó Beach, Marina Los Sueños, Playa Herradura, Carara National Park, championship golf courses, fine dining, and a wide variety of outdoor adventures. Buyers will appreciate the added confidence of a registered cadastral survey, clear property documentation, and a certified geotechnical slope stability study completed by a licensed engineering professional.
