Property Description

Mountain Home with Guest Cabin & Additional Building Site Near Nauyaca Waterfalls Set on approximately 5,000 m² (1.24 acres) in the peaceful mountain community of San Salvador de Barú, this property offers a rare combination of privacy, comfortable full-time living, guest accommodations, and additional room to build, all within easy reach of some of Costa Rica's most desirable destinations. The property is arranged across three natural terraces, creating distinct and functional areas throughout the land. Two terraces are already occupied by the existing homes, while the third remains open as an additional building site, offering excellent potential for a future home, studio, pool area, additional guest accommodations, gardens, or another project tailored to the new owner's needs. The main home offers approximately 110 m² of total construction and features three bedrooms and one bathroom.
