Property Description

This comfortable and well-equipped home in Ojochal Costa Rica is located in a prime gated community with jungle and wildlife all around. Homes in this neighborhood often sell at much higher prices than this cozy little gem, so this home is a great way to take advantage of the comfortable and welcoming lifestyle that Ojochal is known for but at an entry-level price. The location, condition, and price of this home make it a great value and this home is easily the nicest home in this price range in all of Ojochal. The area is filled with jungle and wildlife for you to enjoy every day during your daily walks around the safe and nature-filled community. The village of Ojochal itself is known for its natural beaches, wildlife, and incredible dining. The one-story home is perfect for a modest vacation rental or as a great place to retire and live a simpler life in the country with none of the hassles.
