Property Description

This fantastic villa is located just across the street to the beach close enough that you can hear the crashing waves during the night and on one of the most desirable beach towns on the coast, Playa Langosta. Playa Langosta is a quiet neighborhood, mostly residential with the exception of a couple of nice hotels and about four restaurants. The beach is simply gorgeous with white sands and relaxing tide pools between volcanic rocks. It suits all kinds of activities from just a simple walk on the sand to fun surfing and exciting shore fishing! Vacation rentals excellent in the area due to all the nice qualities mentioned before in addition to the proximity to Playa Tamarindo which it's at a short 2-minute drive or a 15-minute walk, either on the road or through the shore. Villa has a very well-thought out layout. The property has a total of 3 bedrooms with ensuite bathrooms plus a half-bathroom that is suited for the living area.
