Property Description

Located in the center of Sámara, this three-bedroom, two-and-a-half-bathroom condominium offers an exceptional opportunity to enjoy the convenience and lifestyle of one of Guanacaste's most popular beach towns. Positioned within the Plaza Sámara Condominium community, the property is just a short walk from the beach, restaurants, cafés, shops, and the many services that make downtown Sámara so desirable. The first-floor residence offers a comfortable and functional layout with an open living and dining area, well-appointed kitchen, utility room, a primary bedroom with en-suite bathroom, and two additional bedrooms. Built in 2006 with solid concrete construction, the condominium provides a practical and comfortable setting for full-time living, vacation use, or an income-producing rental property. The gated community adds privacy and security, while the private fenced yard and attached carport provide added convenience.
