Property Description

This chic property is bordered by a year-round river flowing past the lovely gardens filled with tropical plants and many varieties of mature fruit trees. The pool and sundeck adjoin the extensive gardens, while a large covered terrace off the kitchen & dining area provide ample shade and space for relaxation, while enjoying the soothing sounds of the water babbling over the river rocks. The upscale rancho is an incredible outdoor entertaining area. In fact, this home & property is designed throughout with entertaining in mind. The style and design of the home exudes a European cottage feel with exposed wooden beams and a tropical flair of local exotic hardwood cabinetry throughout, contrasted and complimented with modern finishes and pops of color in the kitchen and baths. The kitchen was designed by a local chef, it is the heart of this home featuring a walk-in pantry, beautiful cabinetry, exceptional appliances, quartz counters and a generous dining island.
