Property Description

Are you looking for a vacation house in Southern Costa Rica? This 1754-square foot luxury villa is located in the upscale neighborhood of Escalares, where homes are nestled among jungle-laden mountains. Escaleras means “staircase” and these houses are elevated around 400 feet above sea level. With the jungle tree canopies, whitewater views, and cool ocean breezes, this luxury villa would be ideal as a vacation home or a rental property. This 2-bedroom luxury villa will make you feel like you’re living in a tropical paradise with its private jungle setting. You can see stunning views of the lush tropical rain forest from every room, where you can see toucans and monkeys. The open floor plan of the eat-in kitchen and living room features modern décor and wood furnishings. The gourmet kitchen includes an eat-in granite breakfast bar, four barstools, wooden cabinetry, and stainless steel appliances.
