Property Description

Welcome to Paradise! The perfect hide-away and one of the most secluded homes in area. It is located in Playa Lagartillo (la-gar-ti-yo) – it's a 2 minute drive to Playa Avellanas where famous Lola's restaurant is located and a 5 minute drive to world renowned surf break of Playa Negra. Furthermore, in just about ten minutes you can walk to one of the least transited white sand beaches in the area which heralded as one of the areas premier turtle nesting beaches. Here you will have romantic hand in hand walks without seeing a soul. On these walks you will see many of Costa Rica's treasures, including Howler monkeys, iguanas, parrots, butterflies and many different species of birds (hundreds of species have been noted in the vicinity). When the day has ended and you are relaxing on a hammock under the shade of a large mango tree you will be serenaded by the sounds of the waves. This is a beautiful and spacious Mexican style home with 3 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms and is constructed with some of Costa Rica's finest exotic woods.
