Property Description

Ojochal Home with Waterfall View This is a very unique property bordered by a river with twin waterfalls, one fed by a river and the other from a spring. Both are active year-round, providing visual and audible pleasure. The house is private from the road, surrounded by lush gardens, many mature and fruit-bearing trees, along with a small spring-fed pond. Located in the hills above Ojochal, only ten minutes from the main village and its very popular restaurants, the elevation is approximately 1000 ft above sea level with pleasant daytime temperatures and cool evenings. The property is just over one acre, with two additional usable building sites for a guest house and/or pool and entertaining rancho. The house is well-built with concrete block and steel construction. Every room has huge windows to allow the natural light, beautiful neutral tile and paint colors throughout, offering comfortable living spaces.
