Property Description

This NEW contemporary home in Uvita offers an ideal combination of style, functionality and location. Casa Tigre is named after the tallest mountain peak on the Costa Ballena. It is conveniently located off the Coastal Highway (34), with easy two-wheel drive access, and toward the end of a cul-de-sac of new home development. Residents benefit from stellar infrastructure including, underground public water, fiber optic, electric cables and fine gravel roads and concrete sidewalks. More efficient, less expenses... your monthly expenses will benefit from a smart construction design and materials. 4KW solar grid electric system, solar hot water system, 4-inch wall and roof sound and heating insulation, house-wide LED lighting, and designed for moving hot air up and out of the home. The architecture is contemporary, as is the floor plan featuring 2,421 sq. ft. The open great room that draws the eye out to the swimming pool and yard.
