Property Description

Just over a 1/4 of an acre, this beautiful property is located on the northern end of Playa Peladas in the "A Section". A short walk to "El Golfo" or the north bay of Playa Peladas or take an easy walk over to Lagarta Lodge for sunset and a beautiful lunch or dinner. Entering the property off the main road you arrive at a wide terrace with a gradual slope fading below with a large mango tree to the western side of the building area. The hill and main building area is primarily stone and solid foundation soil. All public utilities and services are readily available upon request to local provides.
