Property Description

Reduced 100k, this house is priced for the market to sell. Close your eyes and drift off to your dream house. Would it have white water ocean views that stretch for many miles? How about an amazing sunset every night of the year? Would it's location be easily accessible and close to local beaches and supplies? If all of this sounds like your idea of paradise then come have a look at this beautiful home in Hatillo. Located just a few minutes from the local beaches and with easy access from both the international and local airports this home is centrally located and would do well in the rental market. The 6+ acres can be divided into two very nice ocean view lots making this a great investment for the savvy investor. This 4 bedroom home comes completely furnished with all new appliances including washer and dryer. All bedrooms have AC, the kitchen is completely stocked with everything you need to entertain and the walk in pantry will hold enough supplies to feed a small army.
