Property Description

In the heart of a desirable community at Buena Vista beach sits this lovely home with wood paned windows and arched frames. With two master bedrooms and a large pool in the back invites you out to for a afternoon dip - this home is a steal for this price! The home is lightly furnished and comes with modern features like granite counters, alarm system, and European fixtures. The kitchen is particularly inviting with a cook-top island and a beautiful window you peer out into the front garden while at the sink. This home is only a few minutes from Buena Vista beach and a few other lesser know beaches and one can walk to Samara Beach or the village within 12-15 minutes. This beach house is in a community of long term residents and snow birds that include people from around the world as well as local Ticos. The price has been recently reduced to encourage a quick sale.
