Property Description

In the heart of Manuel Antonio and deep in the jungle, this beautiful home in a gated community gives you all the privacy and natural wonders, but still just steps to the main road...This beautiful jungle home is set in a bamboo forest with a private pool and jacuzzi. The house is 2-story, can be used as a duplex or single family home, each floor with washer/dryer, kitchen, living and sleeping areas. Monkeys pass by your dining room window over breakfast and in the afternoons. Relax in the pool or jacuzzi as you enjoy the sounds of the jungle. This home is perfect for someone who wants to have vacation rental income from one floor and live on the other floor. This property really has it all and is a great investment in one of the nicest areas in Costa Rica to live. Give us a call we would be happy to send you more information or set up a viewing.
