Property Description

Casa Bali Tropical is an idyllic Costa Rica estate located on over 5 acres of land in Lagunas and less than 15 minutes from Dominical and other world-famous beaches. Amazing ocean and coastline views from Guapil all the way to Manuel Antonio with nearly year-round sunsets. Other than the structures and pool, when one awakens, you see nothing but the lush jungle from every room on the property. Believe me, one NEVER tires of seeing lipstick palms, royal palms, frangipani (plumeria) – pink and white, Guanacaste's, and Ceibas plus tons of animals. You will be astonished by the wildlife on and around the property from monkeys to parrots and toucans, to deer, armadillos, anteaters, pizotes, and much more. The homes were designed with a tropical Balinese influence by the previous owner who was an accomplished architect and put incredible thought and detail into every aspect of the homes and property.
