Property Description

The Finca Maranon Development is located at the end of Calle Papagayo in the Village of Ojochal. The views from the top Plantels include outstanding Ocean views along with majestic Mountain and Rain forest views. The property being offered includes a total of 3 parcels of land with a combined area of 9,858 m² (2.45 acres). The 2 upper lots have been cleared and have a number of excellent building Plantels that provide a number of scenarios for you to build your dream home or family estate on.. The lower parcel has been left as green area and provides a beautiful green barrier to the road below the property. Access to the property is by a well-maintained road coming up from the town of Ojochal off of Calle Papagayo, only 10 minutes from the new Costanera Sur highway providing access to the many beaches in the area. Services such as water and electricity are at the front of the building sites, which means construction and permits can be started when you are ready
