Property Description

Imagine the sound of water flowing, toucans signing, monkeys, and watching a sunset over the Pacific ocean from your newly renovated 3 bedrooms home. This home provides just that. Located in upscale Escalares this 2.4-acre property checks on the boxes a homeowner would want in Costa Rica. This home is surrounded by jungle with two creeks one on both sides of the property. With ocean and jungle views from two of the three bedrooms, this property is perfect for anyone who is looking to retire, purchase a vacation home, and now with legal water, you can expand to build your dream property. There is endless potential with this property just let your imagination run wild. Entering off the public road you will pass through two cement pillars with an electric gate with security access. As you enter the landscaped driveway you will find an under roof parking area that conveniently leads past the laundry room and into the kitchen dining area.
