Property Description

Small house with a beautiful view of the mountains. The landscaping is beautiful and offers a very wide variety of plants and fruit trees. This property of 1 Hectare provides great privacy, easy access and proximity to the center of Ojochal makes this property a site of choice. This property offers plenty of possibilities, there are two additional construction sites, so it is possible to build a small house with a superb mountains view, and about 20 meters down at the entrance of the lot, the construction of a small private house for rental income or for sale is also possible. You can also divide the part of the lot at the entrance and resell it to potential buyers. In addition to the magnificent view of the Ojochal Mountains, one of the assets of this property is the location, with its many restaurants and practically deserted beaches of the Costa Ballena which are only minutes away.
