Property Description

Great Buy - Price Recently Reduced from $129,000!! This 16.5 acre large mountain view lot in the Vistas de Chirripo development is the perfect site for your dream home in Costa Rica. Vistas de Chirripo Country Estates is an established residential community of international residents in southern Costa Rica. The development is situated in the foothills of the Talamanca mountains and bordering Chirripo National Park. It is only a half hour's drive into San Isidro de El General. San Isidro is the largest city in the southern zone of Costa Rica with a hospital, 2 emergency clinics, a large number of modern grocery stores, great restaurants, abundant shopping, and even a mall with a cinema. The lot is in Phase 1, which has been completely sold-out since 2014. Phase 2 infrastructure has been completed and a new subdivision of fully serviced lots is now open. The development has an established expat community with many full-time residents from the U.S.
