Property Description

The property has 7 bedrooms and 6.5 bathrooms and it's located in the pristine, tranquil neighborhood of Valle Pura Vida. This property was built with a business in mind, having the owners quarters built into the plans. Every detail was thoughtfully planned and it shows. As you drive into Valle Pura Vida you approach the villa, winding up a beautiful private paved road to the front entrance. From the road level you walk into the greeting area. Off to the side there is a large office, and a guest bedroom on the other side. Both have large balconies overlooking the jungle and the Pacific ocean with north views. On your right you will enjoy the fila Chonta mountain range. From there you go up a gorgeous wooden stair case to the second floor and you are in the living quarters of the owners home. There you will find a stylish kitchen, beautiful dining room and cozy living room. Everything you see is decorated with a fine eye for design, all with breath taking views and balconies.
