Property Description

This lovely home is located in a secure, gated community just walking distance from Bejuco Beach; a beach awarded a Blue Flag for its pristine condition. The lush tropical landscaping provides incredible privacy around the home and outside living areas. The community offers 24 hour security and is conveniently located halfway between Manuel Antonio and Jaco, two of Costa Rica's most popular tourist destinations. Amenities include two swimming pools, tennis courts and a rancho for barbequing and entertaining; providing a terrific lifestyle for young and old. One of the things that really makes this home stand out is the covered patio and outdoor kitchen that maximizes and expands the living spaces and takes advantage of the wonderful climate and tropical plants of Costa Rica. Imagine having your first cup of coffee on the patio and enjoying another beautiful day in Costa Rica surrounded by lush landscaping.
