Property Description

The River Runs Through this 1 acre site garden setting in Ojochal. The house is ideal for a commercial, living combination or a bed and breakfast with guests enjoying the gardens leading out to the river edge. A small pool providing the amenity but easy to maintain. Location close to fine restaurants, shops and services of Ojochal. The house is a solid structure with unique design, arched doors throughout with large opening to outside courtyard. A great ambiance of walkways through the garden areas to the river. Land is owned on both sides of river. Although the price is based on cash, the Seller will consider some terms to make a sale. This is an opportunity to own river front property at a bargain.
