Property Description

Quaint 3 bedroom and 2 full bath home up on the "high side" of San Isidro. The home is being offered fully furnished, including all appliances. Basically it's a turn-key living situation for those ready to make a fast expat getaway from the rat-race of the U.S.A. The home features a garage and a superbly manicured lot with a wide variety of brightly colored flowers. The view of the city, valley and surrounding mountains is breathtaking. The home is up on the high side of center-city San Isidro, so the temps are cooler than down below. Also it's up there that you get those incredible views. Nevertheless, an easy walk down to the central park area and surrounding shops. Also located close to schools, both public and private, as well as universities, dental and medical care. San Isidro de El General is the gateway to Costa Rica's southern zone and is Costa Rica's second largest and fastest growing city.
