Property Description

The Diamante Cabin with views to the spectacular Diamante Waterfalls (the second highest waterfall in Central America and the highest in Costa Rica) is located in the tranquil town of San Salvador, which sits in a valley halfway through San Isidro del General and Dominical on the Southern Pacific Coast of Costa Rica. The one bedroom wood cabin features 2 decks - one with waterfall views and the other, ocean and sunset views. It is conveniently located with access to all of the best features of the area. Whether you just want to enjoy some peace and quiet, or are ready to venture out on countless dirt roads with a mountain bike, ATV or horse-back, OR -- head down to the beach for some surfing, this little cabin offers a true Costa Rican vacation experience.
