Property Description

This newly constructed little gem is centrally located in the heart of Uvita. Easy access, tons of local restaurants and shops a quick walk away. Like to surf? This home is located by one of the area's best surf beaches, no need to load the car, just walk with your board. Even in the middle of the afternoon, this home has non-stop breezes that simply lull you into relaxation. As you enter the home it's neatly organized and thoughtfully constructed for ease of use. A large sectional couch is built-in with fabrics that will allow for everyday life. A hand-carved island is a perfect place to sit and have your morning coffee or take in one of the covered patios for relaxation. The kitchen is equipped with a gas cooktop and lots of room for storing your items. If you love to cook it's been thoughtfully designed for an abundance of counter space. Off the main entertainment area the lower bedroom has its own access should you want to rent part of the home out.
