Property Description

Handsomely positioned in one of the most private and secluded areas of Manuel Antonio with a discreet profile from the street yet offering 4+ levels descending the hill below, Villa Caimito is a newly renovated estate property nestled in the tropical rain forest with upper views of the Pacific Ocean beyond. Featuring a total of 9 bedrooms and 11 bathrooms, this home offers a unique opportunity for multiple uses. As a whole it sleeps 22 people, great for retreats of all sorts – corporate, yoga, spiritual – or large family gatherings. Yet there are 3 fully equipped self-contained units which could be used by smaller groups, with 2x2 bedroom apartments plus the larger home with 5 bedrooms. Entering the main floor, you are met with a light and airy open concept kitchen / dining / living area with floor to ceiling sliding glass doors leading out onto a balcony with gorgeous views of the jungle – including a beautiful Caimito tree – and all the wildlife it has to offer.
