Property Description

Price recently lowered, owner super motivated. Spectacular ocean view lot near Dominical beach in the community of Hatillo. The lot is 2.5 acres and located at a good altitude to catch cool ocean breezes, which will help you escape the heat below. The Pacific ocean views are spectacular all the way to Manuel Antonio and you'll be able to enjoy an incredible sunset each evening. Views of the surrounding mountains are also gorgeous. The location is about 10 minutes off the main highway, the "costanera", and only about 20 minutes from the popular Dominical beach. There are nearby beaches with low traffic, such as the gorgeous and secluded Playa Linda and Playa Matapalo. This is a surfers' paradise, as all surrounding beaches get large pounding pacific swells. Manuel Antonio, with its famous national park, the most popular and visited in Costa Rica, is only a half-hour away. The road leading up to the property is good, with concrete paved sections leading all the way to the lot.
