Property Description

Set within the jungle of Parrita, just 25 minutes drive from Quepos central is a 20 plus hectare (49 acre) property encompassing rolling hills with ocean views and a gorgeous river that runs year round. The opportunity here is two-fold. There is an already existing, vacation rental business with room to expand by 200%. And there is the enormous acreage beyond where one can imagine creating; a multi-family compound and/or a sustainable community; a newly profitable regenerative farming venture; or realize a great idea for an eco-tour. Sixty plus acres, many of which offer soul reviving ocean and mountain views, is a wonderful canvas to realize your vision. At the entrance, a gate welcomes the visitor to a beautifully groomed acre comprised of a vast impeccable lawn, well tended tropical gardens, 2 modern container “cabins” facing the river and plenty of room for four more. A caretaker’s house is situated at the gate, as it should be for appropriate security.
