Property Description

This home is located in Matapalo, a small town close to Dominical and Quepos. The distance to the local beach is supereasy and convenient, there is a paved road that takes you directly to the sandy beach which is perfect for family and surfers too. The distance from the house is 1km. The home offers a great location, far enough from the main highway to keep the noise away but with 200 meters of Costanera frontage which is perfect for a commercial business. You can easily expand your structures, there is a lot of usable land for more homes, cabins, etc. Great property with great potential to recover and generate a good income.
