Property Description

Discover one of Pavones' Best-Kept Secrets... This hidden gem is tucked away off the main road just across from the beach. This is a new build in 2019. It feels fresh and alive. Casa Evergreen is made of wood and steel construction. In fact, it's a converted container home with its very own shaping bay/workshop. It's a surfer's dream. Low maintenance, close to surf and food. The quaint country road from the sea to the jungle is a scenic stroll in itself. Two bedrooms, one upstairs and one downstairs. Upstairs there's plenty of room to relax and enjoy being surrounded by nature. The kitchen and living room are in one unit with an open floorplan across from the master bedroom. Downstairs is a secure bodega, the second bedroom (income potential) and a completely separate washroom with a washing machine included. There is a two-room cabin the is currently outfitted for a surfboard shaping bay.
