Property Description

Centrally located, this charming Uvita 3 bed 2 bath home is ready for ease of life or an excellent rental possibility. The location is hard to beat with the iconic whales tail around the corner or Playa Chamon. Local shops and restaurants are all in easy walking distance and the local farmers market at your door step. As you enter the home your cozy living area is all one needs to enjoy pura vida. The cute kitchen has been set for you to start to propane the local fresh produce that is in abundance. Two bedrooms are located at the front of the house with their shared full bathroom while the master bedroom enjoys its own ensuite. Sip on your morning coffee on the front porch looking at the majestic Uvita mountains while the daily scarlet macaws land in the trees just in front of you! The newly built car port allows for ease of care for your belongings. Uvita is known as the hot spot of the zone.
