Property Description

Welcome to this magical estate located in Platanillo with hundreds of fruit trees, multiple lodging units and a private waterfall with a natural swimming hole within the property. This is a hidden gem and a very private, rare opportunity. Accessible from Dominical (15 minutes) and San Isidro (25 minutes), you are close enough to convenience yet far enough from civilization to be at one with nature and enjoy the peace that this gorgeous property provides. At nearly 8 acres, this parcel offers a number of investment possibilities. With easy access, this property holds a prime location for operation as both short term and long term stays, as a language school, retreat center or as family compound. The property has some areas for growing food, numerous fruit trees already producing and over 600 mature coffee plants so you may soon decide that this homestead will become your forever paradise. Perfectly ideal to live full time in a sustainable and healthy environment.
