Property Description

An artistic, artesanal, bohemian, and local community surrounded by nature, wildlife, and magical bodies of water is what lies within the town of Montezuma. A central location to all areas on the southern tip of the Nicoya Peninsula. Within the town you will find grocery stores, restaurants, bars, hotels, beautiful beaches, natural attractions and so much more. You will feel you have stepped out of reality into paradise when arriving in Montezuma. This property consists of three, 2-story homes for sale just a short distance from Montezuma. A total of 1,684m2 with a peaceful landscape that offers seclusion from the main road while still being close enough to enjoy all the perks. These homes can operate as commercial residences for short or long term rental. Originally built in 2004 with a solid and sound concrete structure, the current owner underwent a great deal of renovation and beautification to the homes and land.
