Property Description

Nestled in the lush green mountains and coffee farms of Berlin sits this recently built home strategically located 15 minutes from San Ramon downtown in the province of Alajuela. San Ramon is fast becoming a highly desired expat area due to its diverse natural wonders, favourable weather and amazing Friday market. From the house on a clear day the awe-inspiring Arenal Volcano and picturesque mountain and valley views can be enjoyed year-round from this three bedroom, two and a half bathroom home! Just 10 minutes away, a tennis, pickleball and paddle tennis club is fast on its way to being completed. Drive down a quiet country lane to this spacious acreage and upon entering the gate discover a beautiful open plan living area with an instant feeling of airy elegance.
