Property Description

One of the last private parcels so close to Uvita. You'll have the best of both worlds with privacy, tranquility and over an acre of your own land and easy 5 minute access to town when you forget to buy butter. This 1.25 acre lot is ready to start building. Asada water letter in hand and an ICE electric pole and transformer close by. There is a gate at the start of the neighborhood that gives the property privacy and security. A road cut all the way to your building site is in place, with a plantel already flattened and ready for you to materialize your plans. The red perimeter in the drone photo is the boundaries of the property and the blue circle is the building pad. Own one of the few remaining parcels of land so close to town that offers this privacy and ease of access. Enjoy a mountain or valley view depending on how you would like to orient your home.
