Property Description

Just up a winding path from the sprawl of Santa Teresa lies the private and exclusive neighborhood of Hacienda Okhra and this two-building compound with pool. Cool down and escape the heat and bustle of the nearby beaches and nightlife in one of the two structures located across 5098m2 of elevated ocean view and jungle bliss. This high value play includes a beautiful one-bedroom home and a second structure to be constructed that can be altered to suit the buyer's needs. And with the first home already steady rental returns, investors looking for a reliable source of passive income and attractive returns are a perfect match. The preexisting structure is a beautiful one-bedroom, one-bathroom home featuring premium materials like teak and bamboo. The high wood-beamed ceiling and ample windows and glass give the space an airy and spacious feel. Sliding glass doors open up to a 180-degree wraparound balcony with great views of the ocean and surrounding jungle.
