Property Description

A one-of-a-kind property, unique to the area offering immaculate views of the ocean. The land is lush and surrounded by dense jungle. This large piece of property is centrally located to all near by amenities within the town. Sitting just a 5 minute drive away from the lively town center of Santa Teresa, this lot is the perfect balance of convenience and seclusion. Here you do not have to compromise a thing! This listing is close to the best surf breaks, beaches, shops, restaurants, and so much more. The property offers 1 large site of land perfect for building. An ideal location for a family home or vacation rental! The monkeys also call this place home and sit up high in the trees above the land. Additionally, there is a water well that is in the process of registration. The electricity and internet connections reside close by. All of these unique features make this property an ideal location for those looking to invest in the area as this is one of the very few ocean view lots still available in Santa Teresa.
