Property Description

Resting in the valley of a horseshoe-shaped bay, Just a 20 min flight from San Jose, Tambor is a small quiet beach town that nurtures a laid-back atmosphere. The bay in Tambor is called Bahia Ballena, which means "whale bay" in English. It was originally named because during the dry season, whales used to frequent the area. This charming "A-Frame" home, sits on 0.2 acre TITLED Beach Front Lot in Tambor Bay. The house was built out of concrete and fine hardwoods. The views to the beach and ocean are stunning, the gardens are tropical and give a private and secluded feeling to the house. The floor plan features a kitchen, bedroom, bath room and oversized outdoor terrace on the first level, and an open bedrooms and bathroom area on the second level. This home has great potential for short or long term rentals all year long!! Don't miss this unbelievable opportunity to own a TITLED beachfront property on the beach in Paradise!
