Property Description

Imagine owning a beachfront villa in a charming community, minutes from water fountains, a stunning Beach Club with three pools, smooth sand, and the emerald sea. You're not in Italy or Spain; you're in Costa Rica! Las Catalinas, an exclusive private resort established along the Pacific Ocean's coasts, offers the best of old-world beauty, modern comforts, and a tropical paradise. 25 Paseo Del Mar is a 3160 square foot, 4-bedroom, 3-bathroom home in the well built Las Catalinas neighborhood. Homes in sun-washed colors surround you, with wrought-iron fences and clay-tiled roofs. Cobblestone streets, fountains, and gardens are just outside your door. Inside, you'll find white-washed walls, soaring wood-beam ceilings, and coastal décor with Mediterranean blue accents. Dinners with family and friends may be prepared in the fully-equipped kitchen, which features handcrafted wood cabinetry and a large island with plenty of seating.
